

Naalah

A new home. A new life. I just adore new things. I promised Ham that I would be a good wife and that I would make him proud.

He says I am spoiled. I just like nice things. Mother was so excited when I told her of Ham's proposal. Father immediately began thinking about the agreement he and Father Noah would come to. My sisters all agreed that Ham was quite a catch. They even seemed a bit jealous, and as well they should. He is quite a catch!

It has only been two months since we stood before the priests and spoke our vows. I have so much to learn. Mother Naamah has taught me to knit and I have been working on a new shawl. It is going to be beautiful. And I believe I will be done with it by the time of the next festival. Ham has been hard at work preparing for the festival, he likes to make up things he calls games. I know that everyone will enjoy them. They always do... except Shem, who says they are just a big waste of time.
