

About the Town.

Welcome to the town of Jeru-Salem. It's a small farming community, I believe 156 people at the last count. And do you know at least 150 of those are in church every Sunday morning.

(walks toward the kitchen) Yes, it's a God-fearing little town with hard working fathers who farm the land, mama's who work beside their husbands raising a family and building a home. (walking stage left to the school building) There's a one room school house for grades 1 to graduating... lets just say that's about the 8th grade. It's as far as most of them go. The daughter.. or son of a farmer is needed at home. After all; they were not only feeding their town but the whole of the United States of America too. Being a farmer was an important job.

(moving to the Church, music changes to organ music) For space we hold any that aspire to a higher learning in the Church Building. (pause to listen) That's Mrs Eugenia Doubter, she's the organists. She's practicing up for the choir practice and Sunday Services and Wednesday Night Prayer meeting. (he walks center stage) Prayer meeting... every Wednesday evening no matter the weather, no matter if its harvest or planting time, they'll be there. They pray, yes! They pray. (walking back toward the kitchen)
