

Amos – The Head Servant

They call me the Head Servant here, but I do not see that it makes much difference. I clean the stables. It is a tough job, but somebody has to do it. Besides I really like it.

Eli, I mean Master Eli, has been making changes this past week.

That Census sure has turned this town around. Old little town of Bethlehem is not lying so still these days. They say we will have people by the thousands coming into town.

And so the stables need to be cleaned extra special and all the sheep will need to be turned out to the lower pasture.

We supply sheep to the temple. It is a side job for the Inn when business is slow. That is why I am in the stable most of the time. I tend the sheep. And it is a lot of sheep... (waving the "smell" away) but...you get used to the smell.

It is those shepherds you have to worry about, they never bathe.

Well, I need to go spread some straw in the parking lot.

Camels... now that is a smell you never get used to.
